Volunteerism is commitment at Melco

– Every single department has self-initiated Xmas activities for Macau's community

Macau, Wednesday, December 20, 2017 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment Limited (Nasdaq: MLCO) (“Melco” or the “Company”) colleagues from every single department in Macau have self-initiated volunteer activities to bring holiday joys to the less privileged community in Macau.

Every department of the Company, participated in giving back to the Macau community during this holiday season, combining the efforts of over 1,300 Melco volunteers. Property Services and Learning Academy volunteers led teams in repainting homes in the community; Crown Towers volunteers organized a ‘Big Brother/Big Sister’ day where they shared with teens from a youth home their life experiences. Security department took the initiative to visit the physically and mentally disabled at Hiu Kong Centre. The long-standing Melco tradition - the Christmas Donation Drive – was also held where Melco volunteers collected, packed and delivered festive gifts to various nonprofit organizations to be distributed to the Macau community. In aggregate, Melco volunteers created 17 consecutive days of Christmas volunteering.

Ms. Akiko Takahashi, Executive Vice President, Chief Officer of Human Resources and Corporate Social Responsibility of Melco Resorts & Entertainment said, “We are proud of our deep-rooted culture in volunteerism. Our colleagues answered to the challenge of every single department initiating their own volunteering activities. As one of the largest employer in Macau, we feel grateful to be able to share our care to the community.
