Melco volunteers welcome 88 kids and family members for fun-filled day at
'One Day Volunteer' event

Macau, Wednesday, August 29, 2018 – Volunteerism is an important element of Melco Resorts & Entertainment (Nasdaq: MLCO)'s efforts towards corporate social responsibility (CSR). In collaboration with The Macao Voluntary Youth Association (AJVM), Melco volunteers hosted a day of fun at City of Dreams' Kids' City for 88 kids and their family as part of the city-wide 2018 'One Day Volunteer' initiative.

Continuing its CSR efforts to actively give back to the community it serves, 60 Melco volunteers accompanied 88 children and family members to a fun and adventure-filled family bonding day at the kid-friendly space. Activities included a DIY arts session to design their very own reusable cloth bags and time spent on arcade games and giant climber play areas.

Ms. Akiko Takahashi, Executive Vice President, Chief Officer, Human Resources / Corporate Social Responsibility of Melco Resorts & Entertainment, said: "We are delighted to continue supporting the 'One Day Volunteer' program organized each year by the AJVM. Melco's dedicated CSR efforts to volunteerism are in line with the association's belief that meaningful experiences can be generated for both volunteers and beneficiaries. We would like to extend our thanks to AJVM and Melco's team of volunteers who help to realize such visions to positively impact society."

Now in its nineteenth consecutive year, this year's AVJM 'One Day Volunteer' program successfully attracted over 1,000 volunteers to dedicate their personal time to 25 various events across the city, with beneficiaries including children with special needs, senior citizens and mentally and physically handicapped persons. This year's theme of "giving for happiness" aims to raise awareness for the positive impact of volunteering and to encourage individuals and groups within the community to join such meaningful initiatives. The 'One Day Volunteer' program aspires to promote and foster harmonious relationships in the community through volunteerism.

60 Melco volunteers spend a fun-filled day with 88 children and their family members as part of the city-wide 'One Day Volunteer' program in collaboration with The Macao Voluntary Youth Association (AJVM).
