Over 100 Melco volunteers lead coastal clean-up at Hac Sa Beach

Start of regular environmental beach cleaning initiative for environmental sustainability with IACM

Macau, Friday, June 29, 2018 – Environmental sustainability and volunteerism are two fundamental elements of corporate social responsibility at Melco Resorts & Entertainment Limited (Nasdaq: MLCO). Melco strongly supports, encourages and facilitates events for employees to engage in volunteerism to benefit the community. Today, in cooperation with Civic and Municipal Affairs Bureau (IACM), Melco launched a volunteering coastal clean-up initiative with over 100 employees taking part in the first event of the Melco x IACM beach cleaning series.

Continued development, improved standards of living and a booming tourism industry has placed increased environmental pressure on Macau's beaches. As an initiative to help combat the problem, 106 Melco volunteers from eleven of the Company's departments were led by representatives from the bureau to initiate the first in a series of coastal cleanups along Macau's largest natural beach Hac Sa and surrounding areas. The volunteers collected large amounts of rubbish and debris from the beach in Coloane, which were then moved away from the water's edge and collected by the government.

Mr. Lawrence Ho, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Melco Resorts & Entertainment, said, "To foster environmental awareness among employees and actively support the government's green initiatives, Melco is excited to announce we will be working with the IACM this summer to initiate a series of coastal clean-up activities over the next three months. We are thrilled with the wonderful response from Melco's volunteers for today's event. I would like to express my thanks to the volunteer team for their great efforts, as we look forward to the upcoming beach cleaning activities to further promote awareness in collaboration with IACM and local NGOs."

IACM expressed: "We are grateful for Melco's program initiative, and would like to encourage everyone in the community to participate in such meaningful volunteerism events; because all action, no matter how big or small, will eventually make a critical difference."

Over 100 Melco volunteers took part in the coastal clean-up lead by IACM at Hac Sa Beach and surrounding areas today as part of a newly-announced summer beach cleaning initiative from the integrated resorts developer.

Melco volunteers beat the heat today at the coastal clean-up, clearing a large amount of rubbish and debris from the water's edge and surrounding areas.
