Melco employees participated in the annual blood drive held at the Company’s properties – Studio City, City of Dreams and Altira – from July 3 to July 14. Melco’s first blood drive was held in 2013, to date, nearly 1,000 employees have given blood. The annual blood drive has become a Melco tradition.

One of the donors, Sammy Hui from the corporate office, said, “As part of Macau, I believe it is the right thing to do to serve the community. Ms. Akiko Takahashi, Executive Vice President and Chief Offer of HR/CSR, said “The blood drive highlights Melco’s commitment towards the community in which it operates. We are very supportive of the noble cause to give the gift of life, and to replenish the blood bank in Macau. I wish to thank everyone who has given blood. I see goodness in them to help save lives. Over the past few years, Melco has formed a close and long term relationship with the Macau Blood Transfusion Services Center. We intend to keep the tradition going every summer where there is an increasing need of blood.”
