Melco hosts collaborative Responsible Gaming training session with the Gaming Inspection and Coordination Bureau on amended law regulations for gaming practitioners

Macau, Tuesday, October 15, 2019 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment Limited recently held a Responsible Gaming training session in collaboration with the Gaming Inspection and Coordination Bureau (DICJ) on amendments to regulations for gaming practitioners, with regards to their entry, working and gaming within gaming areas. DICJ guest speakers including Mr. Anthony Leong Man Ion, Deputy Director of DICJ; Ms. Serene Chan Ioc Sut, Head of Research and Investigation Department; Mr. Miguel Luís Castilho, Senior Advisor; and Mr. Joe Vong Chi Fu, Head of Inspection of Games of Fortune Department, delivered details of the law amendments to close to 160 Melco colleagues and nearly 70 junket employees at Melco’s Studio City. Melco management representatives present at the training session included Ms. Veron Mok, Vice President, Human Resources, Studio City; and Ms. Joyce Wong, Director, Training.

Mr. David Sisk, Chief Operating Officer, Macau Resorts, Melco, said, “Responsible gaming continues to be a top priority for Melco. With Employee Education being one of the three core elements that focus our framework for Responsible Gaming initiatives, we are fully supportive of this training collaboration with the DICJ to equip Melco employees and gaming practitioners with the latest information and updates for compliance with regulations. As the recipient of the Socially Responsible Operator of the Year recognition at this year’s International Gaming Awards, we will continue to develop our proactive and systematic approach towards Responsible Gaming to go beyond mandated regulatory requirements with industry-leading technology and community outreach.”
