–Sharing warmth and joy during the “Volunteer Week”

Macau, Wednesday, February 14, 2018 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment Limited (Nasdaq: MLCO) volunteers brought warmth and care to the community to help them celebrate the joyous Lunar New Year. 120 Melco colleagues demonstrated the company’s commitment to volunteerism through three different events with over 550 beneficiaries. Volunteerism is an important foundation for the Company’s commitment in giving back to the community.

Co-organized with the General Union of Neighbourhood Associations of Macau, Melco volunteers cleaned the homes of over 260 elderlies living alone at the Ching-Chong Houses for Elders, in preparation for the Lunar New Year. “Lucky bags” from the Fuhong Society of Macau, a local social enterprise, and festive decorations were also gifted to the elderly.

Melco volunteers also enjoyed Lunar New Year-themed games and “Fai-Chun” making with 250 students and teachers from the Concordia Special Education School. A special dance performance by The House of Dancing Water show performers was also arranged. The event concluded with a school lunch arranged by Melco and gifts presentation to the students.

Last but not least, Melco volunteers paid a visit to 45 living-alone elders in Shek Pai Wan, introducing to them the proper use of Ping-On-Tung, a one-press device for emergency calls specially designed for the elderly. “Lucky bags” were also gifted to the elderly, bringing them warmth and joy in the cold weeks of winter.
