Simple Acts of Kindness – 100 Melco volunteers clean Hac Sa Beach and surrounding walking trail areas in cooperation with IAM

Macau, Friday, September 4, 2020 – Environmental sustainability and volunteerism are two important pillars of Melco Resorts & Entertainment’s corporate social responsibility. As part of the Company’s signature ‘Simple Acts of Kindness’ philosophy based on the principle that little things have a big impact, and each person can do something to touch people’s hearts, 100 Melco volunteers took on the task of cleaning up Hac Sa Beach, its surrounding walking trails and picnic areas, beating the summer heat with their determination to do good for the environment and to give back to the community in cooperation with Civic and Municipal Affairs Bureau (IAM). The volunteers spent a collective total of 200 hours over three sessions to remove rubbish including plastics and debris, as well as cleaning and wiping down the barbeque picnic areas.

Mr. José Tavares, President of IAM, commented: “The Civic and Municipal Affairs Bureau is grateful for Melco’s continued support towards the Bureau’s objectives in promoting environmental sustainability. Environmental hygiene is of utmost importance at this time and so we are pleased to see Melco volunteers devote their time and efforts to help us clean up our beaches and walking trails.”

Ms. Akiko Takahashi, Executive Vice President and Chief of Staff to Melco’s Chairman & CEO, said, “We thank our volunteers for their dedication in recent months to help not only those in need within the community, but also in helping to do our part for environmental protection for the city in collaboration with IAM.”
