Melco supports local Small and Medium Enterprises and brings festive cheer to employees at Christmas Markets fair event

Macau, Tuesday, December 18, 2018 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment is committed to supporting the development of local Small and Medium Enterprises (SMEs). During this festive season, Melco invited over a dozen local SMEs to showcase their goods and services to Melco employees at the Company’s SMEs Christmas Markets fair event, offering employees a chance to learn about new gift ideas and shop, supporting local businesses.

The Christmas Markets fair took place at Melco’s employees-only ‘Heart of House’ areas at the Company’s three properties including City of Dreams, Studio City and Altira Macau between December 5-14, offering participating local SMEs increased exposure and more opportunities for employees to discover and explore the fair and the products presented. On offer were food and beverage items including fresh fruits and fine wines sourced from around the world and unique handicrafts designed and made locally in Macau, including bags, cosmetics, accessories and customized goods. Hundreds of Melco colleagues visited fair booths across the three properties, supporting the local vendors.

Participating local SME representative, Ms. Wendy Chu of Wai Tek Handcraft Shop, said, “I am really pleased that Melco invited us to take part in the Christmas Markets fair for its colleagues, enabling us increased exposure and publicity within the community to showcase our handmade products including soaps, unique decorative bouquets and ‘flower’ arrangements made with Japanese flour, cosmetics and the promotion of handcraft DIY sessions. The atmosphere was festive and buoyant, and hopefully as enjoyable for vendors like myself as it was for Melco’s colleagues.”
