Melco supports major Macau charity event ‘Walk for a Million’

- More than 2,000 employees and family members take part
- Volunteer outfits created by young fashion designer and winner of Melco’s local talent-nurturing CSR program Dare to Dream

Macau, Friday, January 11, 2019 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment supports, encourages and facilitates events for employees to engage in volunteerism and benefit the community. Continuing the Melco tradition of supporting the annual major Macau charity event ‘Walk for a Million’, over 2,000 colleagues and family members took part in the event, donating generously to the worthwhile cause. Volunteers’ outfits were created by young fashion designer Ella Lei, winner of Melco’s local talent-nurturing CSR program organized in collaboration with The Macau Productivity and Technology Transfer Centre (CPTTM) Dare to Dream. Furthermore, Melco made a donation of MOP 600,000 to Readers of Macao Daily News Charity Fund to support the fund’s charitable efforts for the community.

Mr. Lawrence Ho, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Melco Resorts & Entertainment said, “As in previous years, Melco is delighted to support the very meaningful cause of Walk for a Million to benefit the local Macau community. We are grateful for our team’s enthusiastic participation, and are inspired to see an increasing number of children partake each year. In 2019, Melco looks forward to developing and implementing more activities to target children’s participation to instill positive values through volunteerism.”
