Melco volunteers celebrate the Chinese New Year with close to 400 beneficiaries from the local Macau community

Macau, Friday, February 15, 2019 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment supports, encourages and facilitates events for employees to engage in volunteerism and benefit the community. To celebrate the Lunar New Year of the Boar, over 80 Melco employees and their family members, including young children, devoted time to the local Macau community, sharing festive joy with close to 400 beneficiaries.

Multiple celebratory events were hosted in collaboration with local organizations including Concordia Welfare Education Society Macau: Concordia School for Special Education, Richmond Fellowship Macau, Serviços Completos para Idosos Cheng I da U.G.A.M. and Macau Caritas' St. Francis Homes for the Elderly to benefit the local community. The themed New Year celebrations included music and dance performances from the volunteer teams, gift giving, game playing, Chinese Fai Chun calligraphy writing and enjoying festive foods. Melco volunteers also visited elderly persons at home to deliver boxes of traditional New Year pudding.

Mr. Lawrence Ho, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Melco Resorts & Entertainment said, “As ever, we take pride in Melco’s deep-rooted culture of volunteering and are delighted to support the local community at such joyful festive times as the Lunar New Year. We are grateful to our volunteers for participating whole-heartedly with their family and their children, and to our trusted community partners for each collaborative effort to support our community and those in need. Moving forward, Melco will continue to devote efforts to responsible corporate citizenship to positively impact society. We take this opportunity to wish everyone a prosperous and healthy year ahead.”
