Macau, Sunday, September 3, 2017 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment (Nasdaq: MLCO) (“Melco Resorts” or the “Company”) today announced plans for the allocation of its $30m MOP cash relief fund to support employees, the community and restoration efforts in the aftermath of Typhoon Hato in Macau. $20m MOP, two thirds of the cash relief fund, will be allocated to support employees and their families in disbursements of up to $10,000 MOP per case, in order to direct funds to a great number of colleagues in need. Melco is currently in the process of establishing an independent committee, which will be comprised of representatives from community associations, education groups, trade unions and other civic organizations, to oversee the allocation of funds to ensure that all cash is delivered to those most in need. All funds for our colleagues will be distributed by mid-October.

The Company will also be holding an event to thank the volunteers and the management team for their extraordinary efforts during the typhoon recovery.
