Melco volunteers bring festive cheer to residents of the Lok In Elderly Service Centre of Women’s General Association of Macau

Macau, Friday, December 14, 2018 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment (Nasdaq: MLCO) supports, encourages and facilitates events for employees to engage in volunteerism and benefit the community. Over 20 members of the Melco volunteer team from the Company’s various departments brought season’s greetings to 80 residents of the Lok In Elderly Service Centre of Women’s General Association of Macau, spending a day together to celebrate Christmas festivities. Activities included song performances, Christmas tree decoration and games, as well as enjoying a festive lunch together with the center’s residents.

Ms. Akiko Takahashi, Executive Vice President, Chief Officer of Human Resources and Corporate Social Responsibility of Melco Resorts & Entertainment, said, “Melco’s deep-rooted culture of caring for the community through volunteerism is core to our commitment to society as a responsible corporate citizen. Especially during this festive season, we are pleased to continue working with our trusted partners such as Women’s General Association of Macau to bring joy and assistance to the community, including to the elderly, children and those with special needs. We are grateful to our volunteering team who tirelessly dedicate their personal time to enrich the lives of those community beneficiaries.”
