Melco Organizes Food Safety Workshop for Local SMEs
Supported by Food Safety Center and CPTTM

Macau, June 1, 2017 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment Limited (NASDAQ: MLCO) (“Melco Resorts & Entertainment”, “Melco” or the “Company”), a developer, owner and operator of gaming and entertainment resort facilities in Asia, is committed to supporting the development of local small and medium enterprises (SMEs). Today the Company held a "Introduction on Food Safety Implementation and Melco Experience" workshop for local SMEs from the food and beverages (F&B) industry, sharing with them the Company's experience and practice on maintaining food traceability. A group of 32 representatives from 24 local SMEs participated in the workshop.

The workshop began with a discussion of food safety law and relevant case studies, hosted by Ms. Annie Loh, Head of Division of Risk Communication, IACM Food Safety Centre. The second topic covered was Trends in Food Safety Management Certification, presented by Ms. Jenny Ho, Manager of Standards, Management, Training & Assessment, Macau Productivity and Technology Transfer Center (CPTTM). Ms. Ho also introduced support services provided by CPTTM. The third topic, Build an Effective & Safe Food Supply Chain Together, was presented by Ms. Ruby O, Executive Director, Food Safety, Melco Resorts & Entertainment, where she shared in details the Company's experience in enhancing food safety and complying with international standards. The workshop was also attended by Mr. Cheong Kuai Tat, Head of Food Safety Centre, Mr. Ung Wai Hou, Head of Division of Risk Management and Planning, and Ms. Helena Lei, Senior Manager of Standards, Management, Training & Assessment, Macau Productivity and Technology Transfer Center.

Ms. Annie Loh said at the workshop, “As an international tourism city, food safety is an utmost priority to the Macau Government. It is important to ensure food safety from the source. Therefore it is crucial for food suppliers to have a thorough understanding of the law and regulations. The Food Safety Center has been providing guidelines and training such as “Food Hygiene Supervisor Incentive Program” to the industry, in order to strengthen the food safety standard of the local industry and assist them with their food safety precautions, as well as guide them in record keeping and product tracking. In a long run, the city's food safety level would be enhanced, which not only benefits the SMEs, but also Macau as a whole in its quest to becoming the World Center of Leisure and Tourism.”

Ms. Jenny Ho said, “CPTTM is keen on providing training and other services to SMEs to facilitate their sustainable development. We share the same commitment and vision with Melco, who has provided a platform for educating local SMEs on various aspects. As one of the major corporations being awarded a Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Points (HACCP) certification and the first in Macau to achieve the Gold Award of GS1 Hong Kong Quality Food Traceability Scheme in 2016, Melco's insight and experience in food safety and traceability is invaluable. It can help improve SMEs' service and produce quality, which would bring them new business opportunities."

Melco's continuing efforts in ensuring food safety has been well-recognized. The Company has recently garnered the Organization Safety Performance Silver Award in the 2016 DSAL Catering Industry Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) Scheme operated by the Labor Affairs Bureau of the Macau Special Administrative Region (DSAL). In addition, Pearl Dragon at Studio City and Jade Dragon at City of Dreams garnered the Gold Award and Bronze Award, respectively, in the Hotel Restaurants (Group A) category, while The Tasting Room at City of Dreams and Aurora at Altira Macau received the Bronze Award and Excellence Award, respectively, in the Hotel Restaurants (Group B) category. Tenmasa at Altira Macau also won the Excellence Award in the Hotel Restaurants (Group C) category.
