Melco Resorts & Entertainment Shares Experience in Occupational Safety and Health with Local SMEs

Macau, Friday, October 6, 2017 - Melco Resorts & Entertainment's efforts in reinforcing occupational safety have been widely recognized. It held a workshop at City of Dreams earlier to share its Occupational Safety and Health experience with 40 local small and medium enterprise representatives. The workshop was supported by the Labour Affairs Bureau (DSAL) and the Macau Productivity and Technology Transfer Center (CPTTM).

The first part of the workshop started with an introduction to the Occupational Safety & Health Charter, given by Mr. Jacky Tam, Senior Technician, Occupational Safety & Health Department of DSAL. It was followed by Ms. Jenny Ho, Manager of Standards, Management, Training & Assessment from CPTTM sharing information on Trends in OHS Management Certification and Support Services provided by the CPTTM. Melco's representative Mr. Steve Yeung, Manager, Occupational Safety & Health, Security then outlined the Company's OSH initiatives.

The workshop was also attended by Ms Helena Lei, Senior Manager of Manager of Standards, Management, Training & Assessment, CPTTM. It was concluded with a business networking session that allowed SME representatives to introduce their products and services to Melco's Supply Chain Department.
