Melco Wins Three Accolades at Hotelier Awards Greater China 2018

Achieving one of the highest number of awards among global hospitality groups

Macau, Friday, November 2, 2018 – Melco Resorts & Entertainment Limited (Nasdaq: MLCO) is pleased to announce the Company has won three accolades at the prestigious Hotelier Awards Greater China 2018, with three of its hospitality employees achieving recognition for their professional excellence. Melco's three winners were selected from over 570 applications representing more than 70 hotel brands. The achievement establishes Melco as one of the top brands to achieve the highest number of awards at this year's event. The highly anticipated annual awards ceremony is recognized as a celebration of brilliance of those in the hospitality industry, and a show of appreciation for those who bring life to a hotel.

Melco's three award recipients are: Mr. Calvin Soh, Executive Director of Culinary Operations - City of Dreams, Studio City & Altira Macau, for 'Chef Hotelier of the Year'; Mr. Eugene Tan, Head Sommelier - City of Dreams Macau, for 'Sommelier/Mixologist Hotelier of the Year'; and Mr. Lawrence Lee, Assistant Director of IT Engagement - Melco Resorts & Entertainment, for 'Information Technology Hotelier of the Year'.

Mr. Lawrence Ho, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Melco Resorts & Entertainment, said, "Once again, we are thrilled to have three members of the Melco team recognized for being the best in their field with their commitment to the delivery of impeccable service quality and professionalism. This prestigious recognition from this year's Hotelier Awards Greater China is a testament to our dedication to product and service excellence, and a tribute to our committed team of hospitality professionals who work seamlessly to create a remarkable and memorable experience for our discerning guests."
