Melco celebrates official launch of Macau's largest fleet of twenty electric buses with manufacturer

Macau, Wednesday, September 26, 2018 – Sustainability is one of the top priorities of Melco Resorts & Entertainment Limited (Nasdaq: MLCO) and the Company is dedicated to the environmental sustainability of Macau. Today, at an event at Studio City, the Company celebrated the official launch of Macau's largest fleet of twenty zero-emission electric buses in collaboration with manufacturer Zhengzhou Yutong Bus Company Limited ("Yutong").

Macao SAR government officials including Ms. Maria Helena de Senna Fernandes, Director of Macau Government Tourism Office, Mr. Xu Jun, Assistant Director-General of Economic Affairs Department of the Liaison Office of the Central People's Government in the Macao Special Administrative Region, Ms Chan Ioc Sut, Head of Research and Investigation Department the Gaming Inspection and Coordination Bureau, Mr. Li Weng Hong from DSAT, and representatives from the management team of Melco and Yutong were among attendees at the celebratory event to help promote new energy solutions for the city's transportation needs. Melco's fleet of 20 electric buses service passengers to, from and between its integrated resort properties City of Dreams, Studio City and Altira Macau.

Ms. Akiko Takahashi, Executive Vice President, Chief Officer of Human Resources and Corporate Social Responsibility of Melco Resorts & Entertainment, said, "Melco are strong advocates of the Macau government's policies to develop the city into a world-class capital for green tourism. With strong support from Yutong, with whom we share the same vision on sustainable development, Melco is pleased to service our guests, colleagues and stakeholders with our fleet of 20 full electric buses, the largest number in Macau. We look forward to continuing to develop our strategies and efforts for a better environment."
